ACROSS THE LIGHT

ROY ROBSON

ACROSS THE LIGHT

Flow Over Formality

We present a summer collection that will take us through the long days, seamlessly merging the private with the public. Formal and casual, responsibilities and pleasures. Occasions we celebrate and time that we spend together are full of tasks that we need to master and will do so in style.

Enjoy Identity

Regardless of the light we move in, it should be with the ease of knowing we can do it in a suitable outfit. Clear outlines that can be combined in a multitude of ways and exciting details that ensure that suitable doesn't just mean conformist. Identity that is as multicoloured as a summer's day and just as clear. Encompassed in summery and light fabrics that flow around us.

Dare to Be Free

All-over prints meet classic style. Muted colours meet radiant colours and open structures meet closed structures. When combined, all this variety gives rise to the individual, lending the wearer that special something. The intention that depicts personality is expressed somewhere in between the colour and materiality.

Everything New Begins Today

Every summer's day can be the first where you do everything differently. Set accents and take advantage of the whole spectrum. Natural colours will always look good in natural fabrics. Technical fabrics provide the contrasts in cut and texture. All these things combined create a summery fresh identity that will come to define 2024.
